BIOGRAPHY – My Glorious

My Glorious is a Indie Rock trio from Vienna/Austria and consists of singer /guitarist Sami Goodenough (UK) and the twins Gregor Sailer (AT) on bass and Paul Sailer (AT) on drums. The band was born out of the ashes of rock band „Fresh“.

From the beginning in 2008 the band has toured in Austria, Germany, Bosnia, Croatia, Great Britain, Israel, Palestine as well as the US five times. Their debut EP „Leper“ (2008) stormed the college radio charts throughout the US. Some Highlights of the past are supportslots for Delirious?, Revolverheld, Jupiter Jones, Jars of Clay and a bombthreat against the band.

In February 2010 the first full length Album „Home Is Where The Heart Breaks“ was released in Europe and the US and was supported by tourdates and a broad promotion campaign (by Rainmaker Public Relations, Gordeon Music) on both continents. 2011 this album won the International Independent Music Award (category: „Best Concept Album“), which is the most important award in Indiemusic.

The album generated buzz in the „new media“ world, so much that star producer Sylvia Massy (Prince, Red Hot Chili Peppers, REM, Johnny Cash, Tool...) was turned on to the band and proposed producing their next album. So, from December 2010 to February 2011 the band has been working on the upcoming Release „Inside my head is a scary place“ in California with her. The album will be released both in Europe and the US towards summer 2011.

The way My Glorious organise their own tours, manage themselves and have created a completely new way of living the indie band idea, attracted a lot of interest from music sites, online magazines and music biz blogs which lead to Sami becoming a sought after writer for international websites (e.g musikfueruns.de, indieonthemove.com, weallmakemusic.com, andy.artmagazine.cc, knowthemusicbiz.com)

Right from the start My Glorious considered themselves to be a company, and so finally, at the beginning of 2010, „My Glorious Music Productions KG“ was founded.

The sound of the band has been described as Coldplay meets Foo Fighters and represents groove based indie rock with passionate melodies. The lyrics dig deep below the surface and are an „honest attempt to understand life“.

“My Glorious play music in a crowded space, I can’t even guess the number of bands I receive details from who play this style of indie rock and the vast majority sound like a poor copy of U2, if that isn’t an oxymoron in itself. So it was with a rapidly beating heart, not in a good way, that I listened to the tracks that Astrid (PR) had pointed me towards, but my fears were dispelled immediately.

What makes for a good sounding band? If there was a formula I guess everyone would sound the same, but one essential ingredient has to be passion, mixed with creativity and this comes in shovel loads from My Glorious...”
